問題4 次の男子車いすテニス全仏オープン（シングルス）で最年少優勝した小田凱人選手に関する英文記事を読んで、下記の26～30の問いに答えなさい。

Paris - Seventeen-year-old Tokito Oda of Japan won the French Open men's wheelchair tennis singles title Saturday, making him the category's youngest Grand Slam champion in history.

Oda, who has emerged as his country's next wheelchair tennis star following Shingo Kunieda's retirement, defeated top-seeded Alfie Hewett of Britain 6-1, 6-4, avenging his loss in their Australian Open final matchup this past January.

The French Open crown gives the left-hander a morale boost ahead of next year's Paris Paralympics, where the tennis competition will take place at the same Roland Garros stadium.

Oda converted five of 10 break points he earned. The fifth break put him up 5-4 in the second set before he served out the match, throwing his (27) into the air in celebration. "I'd like to thank everyone -- my team, family and fans," Oda said. "I want those who saw me play for the first time to support me from now on."

Hewett was the previous youngest winner of a Grand Slam men's wheelchair singles title with his 2017 French Open victory at 19 years, 186 days, according to the International Tennis Federation.

Born in Aichi Prefecture in central Japan, Oda began using a wheelchair after he was diagnosed with bone cancer in his left hip at age 9. He took up the sport when he was 10 and turned pro in April 2022.

Earlier in the day, Diede De Groot of the Netherlands defeated Japan's Yui Kamiji 6-2, 6-0 in the women's wheelchair singles final. (6/10/2023, KYODO NEWS)

【注】 avenging : 敵を討つ、matchup : 対戦、morale boost : 士気の鼓舞

問題5 次の英文スピーチは、2020年3月21日に、第40代ニュージーランド首相のジャシンダ・アーダーンがコロナ禍の困難を乗り越えるため国民に向けて行ったものである。このスピーチの冒頭部分を読んで、下記の31～35の問いに答えなさい。

I'm speaking directly to all New Zealanders today to give you as much certainty and clarity as we can as we fight COVID-19.

Over the past few weeks, the world has (31). And it has (31) very quickly. In February it would have seemed unimaginable to close New Zealand's borders to the world, and now it has been an obvious step as we (32) COVID-19.

This is because we are experiencing an unprecedented event – a global pandemic that in New Zealand, we have moved to (32) by going hard, and going early.

I understand that all of this rapid change creates anxiety, and uncertainty. Especially when it means changing how we live. That's why today I am going to set out for you as clearly as (33), what you can expect as we continue to (32) the virus together.

The first really important thing to remember, is that the vast majority of people who will ever have COVID-19 will only experience mild to moderate symptoms. But there will be some who need more care.

That's why we have to focus on one simple (34) – to slow down COVID-19.

Slowing it down, means not having one big tidal wave of cases, but instead, smaller waves – groups of cases that we can manage properly as they arise. That means we reduce the impact on (35), on jobs and on our economy. Some countries have successfully managed to do this – but it does mean we have to be ready to step up our action when we need to.
